

Taxes and fees:

28. Where do I pay taxes on my earned income?

There is no specific regulation as established in the tax agreements between the respective States, or in the internal tax regulation of each State.

When posting for a period of less than six months, the posted worker is not required to pay income tax in the host country.